Crash Course: What Chandler Does

A one-page primer for remote assistants. Read this before your first call.

I'm an independent, licensed life insurance agent. I don't work for one insurance company. I'm contracted with many top-rated carriers (like Americo, Mutual of Omaha, Aflac, Ethos, Corebridge and Transamerica), and I shop them to find each client the best coverage for the price. Every policy I write goes into my own book of business. That's what I'm building.

HOW IT FITS TOGETHER

Carriers
Insurance companies that issue and pay the policies

→

IMO
Gives me carrier contracts, training, tech and leads

→

Chandler (IBO)
Independent business owner. Licensed agent who sells and services

→

Clients
Families I protect. My book of business

WORDS YOU'LL HEAR

IBO	Independent Business Owner. I run my own agency; nobody employs me.
IMO	Independent Marketing Organization. The group I'm contracted through for carriers, training and support. Not my employer.
Carrier	The insurance company that issues the policy.
Book	All the clients and policies I've placed.
AP	Annual premium: a policy's yearly cost. How production is measured.
Advance	Commission the carrier pays up front once a policy is approved.
Chargeback	When a policy cancels early and part of the advance is taken back.
Aged lead	Someone who asked for info a while ago and never finished.

WHAT I SELL

- Mortgage protection: life insurance that pays off or keeps up the mortgage if the homeowner passes, so the family keeps the house.
- Final expense: smaller whole life policies that cover funeral and burial costs, including for veterans and their families.
- Most clients are homeowners, seniors on fixed incomes and veterans. Almost everything is done by phone, with an e-application.

HOW A SALE HAPPENS

Lead → You book the appointment → My call: needs, health, quotes → E-app → Carrier approves → Policy in force → Referrals

"WHO DO YOU WORK FOR?"

There's no big company name to give, and that's on purpose. Say: "Chandler is an independent licensed agent. He works with a lot of A-rated insurance companies to find you the best coverage for your budget."

YOUR JOB

- Re-engage leads and book appointments on my calendar
- Add notes: their "why," who they're protecting, spouse joining
- Send reminder texts and confirm times
- Keep my calendar and lead list clean

NEVER

- Quote prices, name carriers or give coverage advice. That requires a license.
- Say or imply you're with a bank, lender, the VA or the government
- Call before 8am or after 9pm their time
- Keep calling anyone who asks to stop. Mark them Do Not Call.

Questions about a client, a policy or anything you're not sure how to answer: write it down and send it to Chandler. "Let me have Chandler cover that on your call" is always a good answer.
