Veteran Final Expense Appointment Setter

Goal: re-engage the lead and book them on Chandler's calendar.

DON'T SPEAK TOO FAST! Slow down, smile and pause after every question. Let them talk.

1

OPENER

"Hey (name)? This is (your name) from the final expense team. Your file is still showing open here. I'm assuming life just got in the way and you haven't been able to get that taken care of yet, right?"

OPENER OBJECTIONS

"I already took care of it."	"Oh good, glad you've got something in place! Most veterans have Chandler give it a quick look to make sure it actually covers the full funeral cost and they're not overpaying. Would that be helpful?" Yes: go to step 3.
"The VA covers my burial."	"That's a really common misconception. The VA can provide a plot in a national cemetery and, for some veterans, a partial burial allowance, but it usually doesn't cover the full cost of a funeral or cremation. That's exactly what Chandler walks you through." Go to step 2.
"Are you with the VA?"	"No, we're not with the VA or the government. Chandler is a licensed insurance agent who works with a lot of veterans and their families." Then go to step 2.
"I don't remember requesting this."	"No worries, most people don't! It was a request for info on final expense coverage, so your family isn't stuck with the funeral costs. Is that still something you'd want to look at?" Yes: go to step 2.
"I'm not interested anymore."	"No problem. Just so I update your file correctly, did you get something in place, or did something change?" One soft try, then thank them.
"How much is it?"	"Great question. It's based on your age and health, so Chandler goes over the exact numbers with you. That's what the quick call is for." Go to step 4.
"Just send me something."	"I wish I could, but there's nothing generic to send. It's all based on you. It's just a few minutes on the phone." Go to step 4.
"I'm busy right now."	"Totally understand. When's a better time for me to call you back?" Write it down and call back then.
"Take me off your list."	"Absolutely, I'll remove you right now. Sorry to bother you." Mark Do Not Call. No pushback.

2

WHY

> "Okay great, and thank you for your service in the armed forces. What got you looking into this in the first place?"

Listen. Write down their answer for Chandler.

3

WHO IT PROTECTS

> "Who would be responsible for the funeral and picking up all the pieces if, heaven forbid, something were to happen to you?"

Write down the name. That's who Chandler is protecting.

4

HAND OFF TO CHANDLER

> "Great, your file is ready to move to our senior principal, Chandler. He works with a lot of veterans, and you'll really like him. He'll just chat with you for a few minutes and get you all taken care of. We do have to schedule you onto his calendar because of demand right now. Does morning or afternoon work better for you?"

5

BOOK IT

> "Perfect. He has (day, time) or (day, time). Which one works better?"

Book it on Chandler's calendar with their "why" and who would be responsible.

6

LOCK IT IN

> "It's really important that you answer for your appointment time. Just to double check what you have down, what time is he going to call you?"

Let them say the time back to you. Send the reminder text.

Book the appointment only: don't quote prices or ask health questions, Chandler covers those. Never say or imply you're with the VA, the government or a "benefits office." Call between 8am and 9pm in the lead's time zone. If anyone asks not to be called, remove them right away.
